SMOKE DETECTOR STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

As required by California State Health and Safety Code §13113.8(b)

Property Address: _____

21 Sherridan Road Oakland

- 1. STATE LAW: California law requires that every single-family dwelling and factory built housing unit sold on or after January 1, 1986, must have an operable smoke detector, approved and listed by the State Fire Marshal, installed in accordance with the State Fire Marshal's regulations. (Health and Safety Code §13113.8)
- 2. LOCAL REQUIREMENTS: Some local ordinances impose more stringent smoke detector requirements than does California law. Therefore, it is important to check with local city or county building and safety departments regarding the applicable smoke detector requirements for your property.
- 3. TRANSFEROR'S WRITTEN STATEMENT: California Health and Safety Code §13113.8(b) requires every transferor of any real property containing a single-family dwelling, whether the transfer is made by sale, exchange, or real property sales contract (installment sales contract), to deliver to the transferee a written statement indicating that the transferor is in compliance with California state law concerning smoke detectors.
- 4. EXCEPTIONS: Exceptions to the state law are generally the same as the exceptions to the Transfer Disclosure Laws.
- 5. CERTIFICATION: Seller represents that the Property, as of the close of escrow, will be in compliance with Health and Safety Code §13113.8 by having operable smoke detector(s) approved and listed by the State Fire Marshal installed in accordance with State Fire Marshal's regulations and in accordance with applicable local ordinance(s).

Re: 27 Sheridan Road, Oakland, California

Dear Ms. Charlene L Robinson:

Interstate Roofing Specialists Corp. has completed the roof work on April 17, 2006 as per our estimate letter dated 3/26/2006. We guarantee our works for one year from the date of completion.

In my opinion, the roof materials appear to be serviceable for about five more years with proper maintenance (I cannot guarantee this), but I found some moisture trapped inside the skylight. Therefore, I recommend the homeowner to consult a qualified contractor to inspect the skylight for repair or replacement if needed.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (510) 601-6369 or Cell at (510) 917-5955.

Sincerely,
Interstate Roofing Specialists Corp.

SECTION 1 JCP STATUTORY MAP READING DETERMINATIONS AND DISCUSSIONS SUMMARY

The statutory Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement on page one of this report does not provide for informing purchasers if the property is only partially within any of the delineated zones or provide additional flood zone information which could be very important to the disclosure process. This summary of JCP's map reading used to complete the statutory form in this report is provided here to give buyers the additional information they may need to help them in the decision making process and to place the information in perspective.

• • • SPECIAL FLOOD HAZARD AREA • • •

Determination

NOT in a Special Flood Hazard Area. Located in Zone "C." Lenders are not federally required to have homeowners purchase and maintain flood insurance for property in this zone designation.

Discussion

Property in a Special Flood Hazard Area "A" or "V" is subject to flooding in a "100-year rainstorm." Federally connected lenders are required to have homeowners maintain flood insurance in these zones. A 100-year flood occurs on average once every 100 years, but may not occur in 1,000 years or may occur in successive years. Other types of flooding, such as dam failure, are not considered in developing these zones. In some cases, the insurance requirement may be waived or modified by obtaining a "Letter of Map Revision" (LOMR) or "Letter of Map Amendment" (LOMA) from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). This might be possible where flooding is shallow and fill was placed on the site, appropriate flood control measures were taken, or only the lot and no part of the structure is in the zone. Contact FEMA directly for more information. Flood insurance for properties in Zones B, C, X or D is available but is not required.

Zones A, AO, AE, AH, A1-A30: Area of "100-year" flooding - a 1% or greater chance of annual flooding.

Zones V, V1-V30: Area of "100-year" flooding in coastal (shore front) areas subject to wave action.

Zone B: Area of moderate flood risk. These are areas between the "100" and "500" year flood-risk levels.

Zones X: An area of moderate to minimal flood risk.

Zones C, D: NOT IN an area of "100-year" flooding. Area of minimal (Zone C) or undetermined (Zone D) flood hazard.

PUBLIC RECORD: Official Flood Insurance Rate Maps ("FIRM") compiled and issued by FEMA pursuant to 42 United States Code §4001, et seq.

• • • AREA OF POTENTIAL FLOODING (DAM FAILURE) • • •

Determination

NOT in an Area of Potential Flooding Caused By Dam Failure according to the maps adopted by The State of California Office of Emergency Services.

Discussion

These areas are subject to potential flooding in the event of a sudden and total failure of a dam and injury could occur as a result. Most areas are defined assuming an instantaneous dam failure with a full reservoir. However, dams rarely fail instantaneously and reservoirs are not always filled to capacity. Not all dams in the state have inundation zones mapped. There may be exceptional conditions where such a map was not required by the OES; therefore, the zones are not delineated.

PUBLIC RECORD: Official dam inundation maps adopted by The State of California Office of Emergency Services ("OES") pursuant to California Government Code §8589.5

• • • VERY HIGH FIRE HAZARD SEVERITY ZONE (VHFHSZ) • • •

Determination

NOT in an area of Very High Fire Hazard Severity Zone as defined on the State level maps (Gov. Code 51178). A local agency may exclude or include additional fire zones at their option. Concerned parties should contact their local fire services for more information.

Discussion

VHFHSZs are defined by the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF) and local fire authorities in "Local Responsibility Areas" where fire suppression is the responsibility of a local fire department. In these zones properties may have a higher risk for fire damage and are required to have a "Class A" roof for new construction or replacement of existing roofs. In addition, the property must be maintained in a fire-resistant condition through adequate vegetation clearance around and above the structure, spark screens on chimneys and stovepipes, leaf removal from roofs, and other basic fire-safety practices. Contact your fire department for a complete list of requirements and exceptions.

PUBLIC RECORD: Official maps issued by the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF) pursuant to California Public Resources Code § 51178.

◦ ◦ ◦ WILDLAND FIRE AREA (STATE RESPONSIBILITY AREA) ◦ ◦ ◦

Determination

NOT in an official State Responsibility Area. Fire protection services for structures in this area are provided by local fire departments.

Discussion

A wild land area where the CDF's fire protection services are responsible for suppressing fires is called a "State Responsibility Area" (SRA). These are generally rural areas where a significant wild land fire potential exists. Unless the county has assumed the fire suppression responsibility or has an agreement with a local fire agency, property owners in an SRA are responsible for organizing structural fire protection services. Such information is not available on maps; therefore, it can't be provided here. For very isolated properties with no local fire services there may be significant fire risk or only seasonal fire services. Property owners in an SRA are required to maintain adequate vegetation clearance around and above the structure, spark screens on chimneys and stovepipes, and other basic fire-safety practices. Contact your fire department for a complete list of requirements and exceptions.

PUBLIC RECORD: Official maps issued by the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF) pursuant to California Public Resources Code § 4125.

◦ ◦ ◦ EARTHQUAKE FAULT ZONE ◦ ◦ ◦

Determination

NOT in an official Earthquake Fault Zone. There are no mapped active fault traces on the property. See the Alquist-Priolo Earthquake Fault explanation section for additional information.

Discussion

Earthquake Fault Zones are delineated and adopted by California as part of the Alquist-Priolo Earthquake Fault Zone Act of 1972. Property in an Earthquake Fault Zone does not necessarily have a fault trace existing on the site. Earthquake Fault Zones are areas or bands delineated on both sides of known active earthquake faults. In some places, the zones are more than one-quarter of a mile wide. The potential for "fault rupture" damage (ground cracking along the fault trace) is relatively high only if a structure is located directly on a fault trace. If a structure is not on a fault trace, shaking will be the primary effect of an earthquake. During a major earthquake, shaking will be strong in the vicinity of the fault and may be strong at some distance from the fault depending on soil and bedrock conditions. It is generally accepted that properly constructed wood-frame houses are resistant to shaking damage.

PUBLIC RECORD: Official earthquake fault zone or special study zone maps approved by the State Geologist and issued by the California Department of Conservation, California Geological Survey pursuant to California Public Resources Code §2622.

◦ ◦ ◦ SEISMIC HAZARD MAPPING ACT ZONE ◦ ◦ ◦

Determination

Not in an Official Seismic Hazard Zone. In an area of no state-level identified Liquefaction or Earthquake-Induced Landslide Hazard. Other Seismic Hazards have not yet been evaluated for this map used in Alameda County.

Discussion

Seismic Hazard Zone maps delineate areas subject to earthquake hazards. New development in a Seismic Hazard Zone is only permitted if it can be shown that mitigation makes the site acceptably safe. Maps are only available for limited areas now, but will eventually cover all of California. The hazards addressed are or will be: liquefaction, enhanced ground shaking, earthquake induced landslides, and various other ground failures. The first release of maps only addresses liquefaction and/or landslide zones.

Liquefaction Hazard Zones are areas where there is a potential for, or an historic occurrence of liquefaction. Liquefaction is a rare soil phenomenon that can occur when loose, water saturated, fine-grained sands, and silty sands that lie within 50 feet of the ground surface, are shaken in a significant earthquake. The soil temporarily becomes liquid-like and structures may settle unevenly.

Earthquake-Induced Landslide Hazard Zones are areas where there has been a recent landslide, or where the local slope, geological, geotechnical, and ground moisture conditions indicate a potential for landslides as a result of earthquake shaking.

PUBLIC RECORD: Official earthquake fault zone or special study zone maps approved by the State Geologist and issued by the California Department of Conservation, California Geological Survey pursuant to California Public Resources Code §2696.

SECTION 2

COUNTY AND CITY NATURAL HAZARD DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The following natural hazard disclosures are provided to give local-level Seismic Safety information for the subject property. This information may be used by the local jurisdiction relative to making decisions regarding new development or additional construction. The agencies and jurisdictions who develop the official maps do not necessarily define or delineate hazards in the same way. A site can be in a hazard zone from one source and not in a hazard zone from another source.

Alameda County Geologic and Seismic Zone Determination

Based on the officially adopted county-level Seismic Safety Element natural hazard maps, the subject property is:
Located less than 600 feet from an inferred trace of the Hayward Fault. Also located in a bedrock area with possible slope stability hazards present especially if slopes are steeper than 20%. See the County Geologic Zones Discussion included with this report for an explanation of zones.

NOTE: If the site is in a locally mapped hazard zone or if information of concern exists in another source, the property may require a geologic study prior to any new or additional construction. The disclosures above are material facts and should prudently be disclosed to buyers in addition to the Statutory Natural Hazard Disclosures. Additional sources of information which are not officially adopted, may be available at the local jurisdiction that are not reported here.

ALAMEDA COUNTY GEOLOGIC ZONES DISCUSSION

The County of Alameda, separately from the State and Federal governments, has officially produced or adopted maps to delineate potential geologic and seismic hazards that are recognized at the local level. Those hazard maps are incorporated into the Seismic Safety Element of the General Plan, adopted by the County Board of Supervisors in 1982. The local-level disclosure in this JCP report was based on the following official County map(s): "Phase I - Preliminary Evaluation of Geologic Problems in the County of Alameda," December 1973, by Woodward-Lundgren & Associates (incorporated by reference into the Safety Element of the General Plan).

The hazard zones delineated on the above map source, in addition to the statutorily-required State and Federal hazard maps, are typically considered by the County when approving land use and development permit applications under County jurisdiction. Additional maps exist in the General Plan and other maps, including updated versions of the above-referenced map(s), may exist in the files of specific County departments. Those additional map sources were not consulted for this JCP disclosure because parcel-level details cannot be resolved at the scale and quality of the available official map, or the map is inappropriate for application to this report, or the map has not yet been officially adopted and incorporated into the County's Safety Element. As mapping technology advances, JCP later may determine that some additional map sources become usable for parcel-level disclosure. The mapped County hazard zones represent evaluations of generalized hazard information. Any specific site within a mapped zone could be at less or more relative risk than is indicated by the zone designation. If a site-specific evaluation is desired, JCP recommends that a geotechnical consultant be retained to study the site and issue a report.

The official County-level information addresses the potential geologic and seismic hazards itemized below:

FAULT

Earthquake Faults have been divided into three categories by the County: active faults, potentially active faults and inactive faults. Inactive faults are not considered to be a high hazard, but building set-backs may be required prior to construction near them.

LANDSLIDE

Potential Landslide areas are mapped by air-photo interpretation. Properties in these areas are subject to some risk of damage from slope failure. However, areas mapped as large landslide deposits are not necessarily less stable than adjacent areas. Detailed site studies are necessary before judgments can be made about the slope stability of individual properties.

TSUNAMI

Tsunamis (commonly called "tidal waves") are large ocean waves generated by undersea earthquakes. Some areas along the Bay in Alameda County may be subject to damage from tsunami run-up on the average of once every two hundred years. Properties in these low-lying regions may be inundated if a 20-foot high tsunami occurs at the Golden Gate.

SOILS

Bedrock areas, Colluvial, Alluvial and Terrace deposits, do not represent zones of high geologic hazard. "Colluvial deposits" are sediments that are deposited at the base of slopes. Alluvial and terrace sediments were deposited by flowing water. Bedrock areas encompass a variety of rock types of various ages and engineering characteristics. These areas may be subject to slope stability problems if slopes are steeper than 20% and are underlain by low-strength geologic materials.

Alluvial Fan deposits represent sediments (clay, silt and sand) deposited by streams flowing over sloping terrain.

Fluvial deposits and Interfluvial Basin deposits represent sediments (clay, silt, and sand) deposited by streams in nearly level lowland areas.

Merrit Sand deposits are loose, fine-grained, very well-sorted, beach and wind-blown sands. This zone is subject to moderate to high potential for liquefaction.

City of Oakland Geologic and Seismic Zone Determination

Based on the officially adopted city-level Seismic Safety Element natural hazard maps, the subject property is:
Located within the City of Oakland fire prevention and assessment district boundary. See the city discussion section included with this report for more information.

CITY OF OAKLAND GEOLOGIC ZONES DISCUSSION

The City of Oakland, separately from the County, State and Federal governments, has officially produced or adopted maps to delineate hazards that are recognized at the local level. Those hazard maps are incorporated into the Safety Element of the General Plan, adopted by the Oakland City Council. The local-level disclosure in this JCP report was based on the following official local map(s): "Safety Hazards Map" (incorporated by reference into the General Plan).

The hazard zones delineated on the above map source, in addition to the statutorily-required State and Federal hazard maps, are typically considered by the City when approving land use and development permit applications under City jurisdiction. Additional maps exist in the General Plan and other maps, including updated versions of the above-referenced map(s), may exist in the files of specific municipal departments. Those additional map sources were not consulted for this JCP disclosure because parcel-level details cannot be resolved at the scale and quality of the available official map, or the map is inappropriate for application to this report, or the map has not yet been officially adopted and incorporated into the City's Safety Element. As mapping technology advances, JCP later may determine that some additional map sources become usable for parcel-level disclosure. The mapped City hazard zones may have been compiled from multiple sources of differing quality and, in some instances, have been generalized and simplified. No special field studies were conducted to verify the information for this subject property. Any specific site within a mapped zone could be at less or more relative risk than is indicated by the zone designation. If a site-specific evaluation is desired, JCP recommends that a geotechnical consultant be retained to study the site and issue a report. The risk of exposure can be reduced through appropriate land-use planning, development engineering, and building construction practices.

The City of Oakland is subject to natural hazards such as seismic activity and flooding. The risk of exposure can be reduced through appropriate land use planning, development engineering, and building construction practices. The City of Oakland Safety Element discusses the varying levels of seismic and flood risk within the City Planning Area.

FAULT

The City of Oakland lies within the San Andreas fault system, the largest one in California and the one with potential for the strongest earthquakes. More specifically, the city straddles the Hayward Fault, a "branch" fault of the larger system. The Hayward Fault runs along the southwestern base of the East Bay Hills and parallels Highway 13. The Hayward Fault is believed to accumulate strain at one of the highest rates in the Bay Area, suggesting that it is one of the faults in the region most likely to generate a large earthquake.

LANDSLIDE

Landsliding is the rapid down slope movement of soil, rock, and rock debris. Most slides are natural occurrences, though they can be triggered by improper construction activities. The main causes of landslides are earthquake-induced ground shaking, heavy rains, and poorly engineered grading and drainage projects. Factors that determine the extent and severity of a landslide include the steepness of slope, the presence of weak or poorly consolidated soils, the soil's water-content level and the existing grading and drainage patterns.

LIQUEFACTION

Liquefaction is the rapid transformation of sediment from a solid state into a fluid state, which causes the soil to lose cohesiveness and become incapable of carrying significant loads; it causes the sediment to behave as quicksand, and results in structures settling, or tipping. Its potential to occur is a function of the intensity of the ground shaking and the underlying geologic conditions.

TSUNAMI

Most often, tsunamis are generated by large offshore earthquakes in the Pacific Ocean, producing waves that reach the California coast many hours after the earthquake.

Flooding from tsunamis would affect low-lying areas along San Francisco Bay and the Oakland Estuary, especially filled area only a few feet above sea level. Areas mapped as being within a tsunami inundation zone represent areas that would most likely be inundated by a tsunami having wave height of 20 feet. Such a tsunami is estimated to arrive at the Golden Gate once every 200 years.

DAM INUNDATION

Dam Failure Inundation Areas were defined using the assumption of an instantaneous dam failure with the reservoir full to capacity. However, dams rarely fail instantaneously, and reservoirs are not filled to capacity at all times. Dam inundation areas are subject to flooding in the event of a dam failure.

FIRE HAZARD

The City of Oakland has established a Fire Prevention and Assessment District for hillside areas of the city for funding fire-safety inspections of private properties, vegetation management, roving fire fighter patrols on high fire-hazard days, public education, goat grazing and other

SECTION 3

FORMER MILITARY ORDNANCE SITE DISCLOSURE

Determination

The subject property is NOT WITHIN one mile of a Formerly Used Defense (FUD) site containing military ordnance.

Discussion

FUD sites can include sites with common industrial waste (such as fuels), ordnance or other warfare materiel, unsafe structures to be demolished, or debris for removal. NOTE: most FUDS sites do not contain unexploded ordnance. California Civil Code 1102 requires disclosure of those sites containing unexploded ordnance. "Military ordnance" is any kind of munition, explosive device/material or chemical agent used in military weapons. Unexploded ordnance are munitions that did not detonate. Only those FUD sites that the USACE has identified to contain Military Ordnance or have mitigation projects planned for them are disclosed in this report. Additional sites may be added as military installations are released under the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) Act. Active military sites are NOT included on the FUDS list.

COMMERCIAL OR INDUSTRIAL ZONING DISCLOSURE

Determination

Based on publicly-available parcel zoning records only:

The property IS within one-mile of a property that is zoned for industrial or commercial use.

Discussion

The seller of residential real property who has actual knowledge that the property is affected by or zoned to allow commercial or industrial use described in Section 731a of the Code of Civil Procedure shall give written notice of that knowledge to purchasers as soon as practicable before transfer of title (California Civil Code Section 1102.17). The Code of Civil Procedure Section 731a defines industrial use as areas in which a city and/or county has established zones or districts under authority of law wherein certain manufacturing or commercial or airport uses are expressly permitted. The "Zoning Disclosure" made in this report DOES NOT purport to determine whether the subject property is or is not affected by a commercial or industrial zone. As stated above, that determination is based solely upon ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE of the seller of the subject property.

In an effort to help determine areas where this may be applicable, this disclosure identifies if a property exists within one mile of the seller's property that is zoned to allow for commercial or industrial use. Very commonly, a home will have in its vicinity one or more properties that are zoned for commercial or industrial use such as restaurants, gasoline stations, convenience stores, golf courses, country club etc.

AIRPORT INFLUENCE AREA DISCLOSURE

Determination

Based on certain mapped Airport Influence Areas determined by a County Airport Land Use Commission, the following determination can be made:

The property is NOT IN an officially-designated Airport Influence Area (AIA) and is NOT WITHIN two (2) statute miles of an airport for which no AIA has been officially designated.

Discussion

Certain airports are not disclosed in this report. FANHD has made a good faith effort to identify the airports covered under Section 1102.6a. Sources consulted include official land use maps and/or digital data made available by a governing ALUC or other designated government body. Most facilities for which an Airport Influence Area has been designated are included on the "California Airports List" maintained by the California Department of Transportation's Division of Aeronautics. Not disclosed in this report are public use airports that are not in the "California Airports List", airports that are physically located outside California, heliports and seaplane bases that do not have regularly scheduled commercial service, and private airports or military air facilities unless specifically identified in the "California Airports List". If the seller has actual knowledge of an airport in the vicinity of the subject property that is not disclosed in this report, and that is material to the transaction, the seller should disclose this actual knowledge in writing to the buyer.

JCP uses official land use maps and/or digital data made available by governing ALUC or other designated government body. Most facilities for which an Airport Influence Area has been designated are included on the "California Airports List" maintained by the California Department of Transportation's Division of Aeronautics. The inclusion of military and private airports varies by County, and heliports and seaplane bases are not included, therefore, airports in these categories may or may not be included in this disclosure.

NOTE: Proximity to an airport does not necessarily mean that the property is exposed to significant aviation noise levels. Alternatively, there may be properties exposed to aviation noise that are greater than two miles from an airport. Factors that affect the level of aviation noise include weather, aircraft type and size, frequency of aircraft operations, airport layout, flight patterns or nighttime operations. Buyer should be aware that aviation noise levels can vary seasonally or change if airport usage changes.

AIRPORT NOISE DISCLOSURE

Determination

Based on certain 65 decibel (dB) Community Noise Equivalent Level (CNEL) contour maps produced under the Federal Aviation Administration's Airport Noise Compatibility Planning Program Part 150, the following determination has been made:

The property IS NOT within a delineated 65 dB CNEL or greater aviation noise zone.

Discussion

The seller(s) of residential real property who has (have) actual knowledge that the property in transaction is affected by airport use must give written notice of that knowledge, as soon as practicable, before transfer of title. (California Civil Code, Section 1102.17).

Not all airports have produced noise exposure maps. A property may be near or at some distance from an airport and not be within a delineated noise exposure area, but still experience aviation noise. Unless 65dB CNEL contour maps are published, helipads and military sites are not included in this section of the report.

NOTE: The Airport Noise Compatibility Planning Program is voluntary. Not all airports have elected to participate. Not all property in the vicinity of an airport is exposed to 65dB CNEL or greater average aviation noise levels. Conversely a property may be at some distance from an airport and still experience aviation noise. JCP obtains updated maps once yearly. Purchasers should be aware that aviation noise levels can vary seasonally or change if airport usage changes after a map is published or after JCP receives the updated maps within the schedule set by JCP. JCP uses the most seasonally conservative noise exposures provided.

Federal funding may be available to help airports implement noise reduction programs. Such programs vary and might include purchasing properties, rezoning, and insulating homes for sound within 65dB areas delineated on CNEL maps. Airport owners have also cooperated by imposing airport use restrictions that include curfews, modifying flight paths, and aircraft limitations.

REGISTERED SEX OFFENDER DATABASE DISCLOSURE ("MEGAN'S LAW")

Notice: Pursuant to Section 290.46 of the Penal Code, information about specified registered sex offenders is made available to the public via an Internet Web site maintained by the Department of Justice at www.meganslaw.ca.gov. Depending on an offender's criminal history, this information will include either the address at which the offender resides or the community of residence and ZIP Code in which he or she resides.

California law (AB 488), signed by the Governor on September 24, 2004, provides the public with Internet access to detailed information on registered sex offenders. The Sex Offender Tracking Program of the California Department of Justice (DOJ) maintains the database of the locations of persons required to register pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.46 of the Penal Code. The online database is updated with data provided by local sheriff and police agencies on an ongoing basis. It presents offender information in 13 languages; may be searched by a sex offender's specific name, zip code, or city/county; provides access to detailed personal profile information on each registrant; and includes a map of your neighborhood.

All sheriffs' departments and every police department in jurisdictions with a population of 200,000 or more are required to make a CD-ROM available free to the public for viewing. Although not required, many other law enforcement departments in smaller jurisdictions make the CD-ROM available as well. Please call your local law enforcement department to investigate availability.

According to current records your local law enforcement department phone number is 510-238-3365.

The following are the law enforcement departments in your county that are REQUIRED to make information available:

Explanation and How to Obtain Information

For over 50 years, California has required certain sex offenders to register with their local law enforcement agencies. However, information on the whereabouts of the sex offenders was not available to the public until implementation of the Child Molester Identification Line in July 1995. The available information was expanded by California's "Megan's Law" in 1996 (Chapter 908, Stats. of 1996). Megan's Law provides certain information on the whereabouts of "serious" and "high-risk" sex offenders. The law specifically prohibits using the information to harass or commit any crime against the offender. The information on a registered sex offender includes: name and known aliases; age and sex; physical description, including scars, marks and tattoos; photograph, if available; crimes resulting in registration; county of residence; and zip code (from last registration). Accessing the online database requires your agreement with the DOJ's terms of use web page.

SAN FRANCISCO BAY CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION DISCLOSURE (Applicable Only in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Solano, and Sonoma Counties)

Determination

Based on certain mapped coastal zones determined by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission (BCDC), the following determination can be made:

The property is NOT IN the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, as defined in Section 66620 of the Government Code.

NOTE: The official BCDC jurisdictional maps issued by the BCDC are electronic documents generally of low resolution and poor quality. As defined by the BCDC, its jurisdiction spans a complexity of ever-changing geographic and topographic environments including: (1) tidal areas of San Francisco Bay; (2) a 100-foot-wide shoreline band that extends inland from the upper edge of the BCDC's San Francisco Bay jurisdiction; (3) certain named waterways that empty into San Francisco Bay; (4) salt ponds adjacent to the Bay; and (5) certain managed wetlands as well as the Suisun Marsh. The BCDC-issued maps are not adequate for determining confidently the proximity of the BCDC-defined jurisdictional boundaries to nearby parcels. Therefore, all parties in the transaction are advised that there is some uncertainty inherent in the "NOT IN" determination made above.

Discussion

As of July 1, 2005, Civil Code Section 1103.4 mandates disclosure to buyers of certain real estate if that property is located within the jurisdictional boundaries of the BCDC. Notice is required to prevent unknowing violations of the law by new owners who were unaware that certain activities on the real property are subject to the BCDC's permit requirements.

The BCDC has issued maps for some parts of its jurisdiction, including the San Francisco Bay Plan maps (California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 10121) and the Suisun Marsh Plan maps (Nejedly-Bagley-Z'berg Suisun Marsh Preservation Act of 1974). Official maps have not been issued for other parts of the BCDC jurisdiction (McAteer-Petris Act areas) because the Bay is a highly dynamic environment and the shoreline changes over time (in part because the sea level also changes over time). In those areas where official BCDC maps are not available or along the edges of the BCDC's mapped jurisdiction, to meet the disclosure requirements, this report will indicate that the property "could be within" the BCDC's jurisdiction and that a location-specific jurisdictional determination should be made by consulting the BCDC. This determination of "could be within" the BCDC's jurisdiction was recommended by the BCDC in that certain Memo entitled "Guidance on Determining Commission Jurisdiction Pursuant to Senate Bill 1568" issued in February 2005 and posted on the BCDC website.

ADVISORIES

METHAMPHETAMINE CONTAMINATED PROPERTY DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

According to the "Methamphetamine Contaminated Property Cleanup Act of 2005" a property owner must disclose in writing to a prospective buyer if local health officials have issued an order prohibiting the use or occupancy of a property contaminated by meth lab activity. The owner must also give a copy of the pending order to the buyer to acknowledge receipt in writing. Failure to comply with these requirements may subject an owner to, among other things, a civil penalty up to $5,000. Aside from disclosure requirements, this new law also sets forth procedures for local authorities to deal with meth-contaminated properties, including the filing of a lien against a property until the owner cleans up the contamination or pays for the cleanup costs.

MOLD ADVISORY

The Buyer is hereby advised that naturally occurring molds may exist both inside and outside of any home and may not be visible to casual inspection. Persons exposed to extensive mold levels can become sensitized and develop allergies to the mold or other health problems. Extensive mold growth can damage a structure and its contents. All prospective purchasers of residential and commercial property are advised to thoroughly inspect the subject property for mold. Be sure to inspect the property inside and out for sources of excess moisture, current water leaks and evidence of past water damage.

For molds to grow and reproduce, they need only a food source - any organic material, such as leaves, wood, paper, or dirt and moisture. Because molds grow by digesting the organic material, they gradually destroy whatever they grow on. Mold growth on surfaces can often be seen in the form of discoloration, frequently green, gray, brown, or black but also white and other colors.

As part of a buyer's physical inspection of the condition of a property, the buyer may consider engaging an appropriate and qualified professional to inspect and test for the presence of harmful molds and to advise the buyer of any potential risk and options available. This advisory is not a disclosure of whether harmful mold conditions exist at a property or not. JCP Geologists has not performed testing or inspections of any kind. Any use of this form is acknowledgement and acceptance that JCP does not disclose, warrant or indemnify mold conditions at a property in any way and is not responsible in any way for mold conditions that may exist. Information is available from the California Department of Health Services Indoor Air Quality Section fact sheet entitled, "Mold in My Home: What Do I Do?" The fact sheet is available at www.cal-iaq.org or by calling (510) 540-2476.

The Toxic Mold Protection Act of 2001 requires that information be developed regarding the potential issues surrounding naturally occurring molds within a home. Information was written by environmental authorities for inclusion in the Environmental Hazards: A Guide for Homeowners, Buyers, Landlords and Tenants booklet developed by the California Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Health Services. It is found in Chapter VI of that booklet, and includes references to sources for additional information.

RADON ADVISORY

For its Radon Advisory, JCP Geologists uses the updated assessment of radon exposure published in 1999 by the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory (LBNL) and Columbia University, under support from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the National Science Foundation, and the US Department of Energy (published online at <http://eetd.lbl.gov/IEP/high-radon/USgm.htm>). Based on this recent assessment, JCP's radon advisory is as follows:

All of California's 58 counties have a predicted median annual-average living-area concentration of radon below 2.0 pCi/L (picocuries per liter of indoor air) -- which is well below the EPA's guideline level of 4 pCi/L and equivalent to the lowest hazard zone (Zone 3) on the 1993 EPA Map of Radon Zones

A "median", like an average, is a central value. The "median concentration" means that half of the homes in a county are expected to be below this value and half to be above it. All houses contain some radon, and a few houses will contain much more than the median concentration. The only way to accurately assess long-term exposure to radon in a specific house is through long-term testing (sampling the indoor air for a year or more). The EPA recommends that all homes be tested for radon. Columbia University's "Radon Project" website offers help to homeowners in assessing the cost vs. benefit of testing a specific house for radon or modifying it for radon reduction (see <http://www.stat.columbia.edu/radon/>).

NOTE: JCP does not use the EPA's 1993 map for advisory purposes because that map shows "short-term" radon exposure averaged by county. It was based on "screening measurements" that were intentionally designed to sample the worst-case conditions for indoor air in US homes--using spot checks (sampling for just a few days), in the poorest air quality (with sealed doors and windows), at the worst time of the year (winter), in the worst part of the house (the basement, if one was available). These short-term, winter, basement measurements are both biased and variable compared to long-term radon concentrations (averaged over a year) in the living area of a house. Long-term concentrations are a more accurate way to judge the long-term health risk from radon. For the above reasons, the EPA expressly disclaims the use of its 1993 map for determining whether any house should be tested for radon, and authorizes no other use of its map for property-specific purposes. For additional information about EPA guidelines and radon testing, see "Chapter VII--Radon", in the California Department of Real Estate's Residential Environmental Hazards: A Guide for Homeowners, Homebuyers, Landlords and Tenants.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY ADVISORIES

"13 SEER" Federal Energy Efficiency Standard Advisory

Effective January 23, 2006, Federal law requires that all new air conditioning equipment manufactured in the United States comply with a minimum efficiency standard set by the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE). The new standard -- called the "Seasonal Energy Efficiency Rating" standard of 13 (or "13 SEER") -- does not require a seller to replace existing air conditioning equipment, nor does it mean that an existing system will be obsolete or impossible to maintain. However, property owners will likely see a higher cost of the 13 SEER-compliant equipment when an existing non-compliant system is eventually replaced. For more information, visit http://www.eere.energy.gov/buildings/appliance_standards/residential/pdfs/ac_factsheet.pdf

California's 2005 Energy Efficiency Standards Advisory

Effective October 1, 2005, the California Energy Commission adopted Title 24, Building Energy Efficiency Standards for 2005. Under these standards, local governments must adopt and enforce building codes that require ductwork to be inspected whenever new heating, ventilating or air conditioning equipment is installed. If the ductwork is found to leak in excess of 15%, then repairs to the ductwork are required to bring it into compliance. The California Energy Commission estimates that the average home's ductwork leaks by 30% or more; so, some repair costs are likely for most homes when a new furnace, for example, is installed. Title 24 does not require a seller to replace a furnace that is otherwise safe and serviceable or to inspect or repair a home's ductwork. However, the future replacement of a furnace will require such an inspection and possible repairs, which may impose an unexpected cost on the property owner. This new standard also specifically bans the use of cloth-backed tape ("duct tape") in making duct repairs, unless the tape is used in combination with approved adhesive materials. Compliance with the standard is assured by hiring a contractor who is properly licensed, and doing the installation with a building permit so that the City Building Inspector can check the work when completed. For more information, visit <http://www.energy.ca.gov/title24/2005standards>

Home Energy Efficiency Improvement Tax Credits Advisory

According to the DOE, the higher replacement cost of a 13 SEER-compliant air conditioning system will be offset by a savings of up to 23 percent in monthly energy costs. The California Energy Commission notes that leaking ductwork accounts for up to 25 percent of the heating costs of a typical home. Therefore, compliance with the new Federal and State standards offers substantial benefits to the property owner, as well as significant environmental benefits through decreased energy consumption, compared with older systems. In addition, consumers who purchase and install specific products, such as energy-efficient windows, insulation, doors, roofs, and heating and cooling equipment in the home can receive a tax credit of up to $500 beginning in January 2006. The facilities financed by this (these) Mello-Roos and/or Special Assessment(s) may not yet have all been constructed or acquired and it is possible that some may never be constructed or acquired. You should take this assessment and the benefits from the public facilities for which it pays into account in deciding whether to buy this property.

If the property is subject to a Mello-Roos and/or a "1915" Special Assessment District Lien, the Seller must make a good faith effort to provide the Buyer(s) with a "Notice of Special Tax" and/or a "Notice of Special Assessment" as long as the notices are made available by the local agency (Section 1102.6b of the Civil Code). Cities and Counties vary where this type of information may be made available. Contact the local Controller, Finance Department, Treasurer or Tax Assessor for more information regarding the availability of a Notice of Special Assessment.

Discussion

California laws allow "special taxes" and "special assessments" to be levied against a property in addition to ad valorem property taxes in order to help fund benefits such as streets, curbs, gutters and underground sewer and water infrastructure. The "Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act" and the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915" are two of these assessment laws, and assessments made under these laws carry a disclosure obligation as of January 1, 2002 (Section 1102.6b of the Civil Code). This notice is designed to help Sellers fulfill this disclosure obligation.

When either of these assessment laws is activated, an assessment lien is placed against each affected property and a special assessment appears on the property tax bill until the amortized debt is fully paid. An important feature of "Mello-Roos" and "1915 Bond Act" assessment districts is that the lien has a priority status. If the assessment tax is not paid on time, the home can be foreclosed upon and sold through an accelerated foreclosure process. Even though a "special" or "supplemental assessment" may appear on the property tax bill, it is not necessarily a "Mello-Roos" or "1915" bond assessment subject to a property lien or a specific disclosure requirement.

IMPORTANT: This information was obtained from an independent tax information service using their proprietary database. It is not a substitute for a title report, for special tax information that may be contained in a title report, or for title insurance. There are a limited number of properties that may be subject to Special Assessment that are not included in this tax database. If the seller has additional information on Special Tax Assessments that do not appear in this report, it must be disclosed to the buyer.

“13 SEER” Federal Energy Efficiency Standard Advisory

Effective January 23, 2006, Federal law requires that all new air conditioning equipment manufactured in the United States comply with a minimum efficiency standard set by the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE). The new standard -- called the “Seasonal Energy Efficiency Rating” standard of 13 (or “13 SEER”) -- does not require a seller to replace existing air conditioning equipment, nor does it mean that an existing system will be obsolete or impossible to maintain. However, property owners will likely see a higher cost of the 13 SEER-compliant equipment when an existing non-compliant system is eventually replaced. For more information, visit:

http://www.eere.energy.gov/buildings/appliance_standards/residential/pdfs/ac_factsheet.pdf

California’s 2005 Energy Efficiency Standards Advisory

Effective October 1, 2005, the California Energy Commission adopted Title 24, Building Energy Efficiency Standards for 2005. Under these standards, local governments must adopt and enforce building codes that require ductwork to be inspected whenever new heating, ventilating or air conditioning equipment is installed. If the ductwork is found to leak in excess of 15%, then repairs to the ductwork are required to bring it into compliance. The California Energy Commission estimates that the average home’s ductwork leaks by 30% or more; so, some repair costs are likely for most homes when a new furnace, for example, is installed. Title 24 does not require a seller to replace a furnace that is otherwise safe and serviceable or to inspect or repair a home’s ductwork. However, the future replacement of a furnace will require such an inspection and possible repairs, which may impose an unexpected cost on the property owner. This new standard also specifically bans the use of cloth-backed tape (“duct tape”) in making duct repairs, unless the tape is used in combination with approved adhesive materials. Compliance with the standard is assured by hiring a contractor who is properly licensed, and doing the installation with a building permit so that the City Building Inspector can check the work when completed. For more information, visit:

<http://www.energy.ca.gov/title24/2005standards>

Home Energy Efficiency Improvement Tax Credits Advisory

According to the DOE, the higher replacement cost of a 13 SEER-compliant air conditioning system will be offset by a savings of up to 23 percent in monthly energy costs. The California Energy Commission notes that leaking ductwork accounts for up to 25 percent of the heating costs of a typical home. Therefore, compliance with the new Federal and State standards offers substantial benefits to the property owner, as well as significant environmental benefits through decreased energy consumption, compared with older systems. In addition, consumers who purchase and install specific products, such as energy-efficient windows, insulation, doors, roofs, and heating and cooling equipment in the home can receive a tax credit of up to $500 beginning in January 2006. 1. MELLO-ROOS COMMUNITY FACILITIES DISTRICTS

Mello-Roos Community Facilities Districts ("CFD") provide a method of financing certain public capital facilities and services especially in developing areas and areas undergoing rehabilitation. Public improvements funded by Mello-Roos CFDs may include, but are not limited to, roads, schools, water, sewer and storm drain facilities. Public services funded by Mello-Roos CFDs may include, but are not limited to, police and fire protection services, recreation program services, and flood or storm protection services. Mello-Roos CFDs commonly fund the construction of public improvements through the issuance of bonds. A special tax lien is placed on property within the district for the annual payment of principal and interest as well as administrative expenses. Typically, the annual special tax continues until the bonds are repaid, or until special taxes are no longer needed. Mello-Roos special tax rates may increase each year. In most instances but not all, the special tax is collected with regular property taxes.

Properties located within a Mello-Roos Community Facilities District are subject to a special tax, which is in addition to the regular property taxes and any other charges and benefit assessments that will be listed on the property tax bill. This special tax may not be imposed on all parcels within the city or county where the property is located. The special tax is used to provide public facilities or services that are likely to particularly benefit the property.

THIS PROPERTY IS NOT SUBJECT TO MELLO-ROOS COMMUNITY FACILITIES DISTRICT SPECIAL TAX LIEN(S).

2. 1915 BOND ACT ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS

1915 Bond Act Assessment Districts ("AD") provide a method of financing certain public capital facilities. The lien amount is calculated according to the specific benefit that an individual property receives from the improvements and is amortized over a period of years. 1915 Bond Act Assessments Districts can be prepaid at any time. In most instances but not all, the assessment is collected with regular property taxes.

This property is within the 1915 Bond Act Assessment District(s) named below and is subject to annual assessment installments levied by the assessment district that will appear on the property tax bill. The annual assessments are in addition to the regular property taxes and any other charges and benefit assessments that will be listed on the property tax bill. The assessment district(s) has issued bonds to finance the acquisition or construction of certain public improvements that are of direct and special benefit to property within the assessment district. The bonds will be repaid from annual assessment installments on property within the assessment district. The special assessment is used to provide public facilities that are likely to particularly benefit the property.

The annual assessment installment and public facilities that are being paid for by the money received from the sale of bonds that are being repaid by the assessments are indicated below. These facilities may not yet have all been constructed or acquired and it is possible that some may never be constructed or acquired.

THIS PROPERTY IS SUBJECT TO IMPROVEMENT BOND ACT OF 1915 SPECIAL ASSESSMENT LIEN(S).

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL PROPERTY TAX BILL

In accordance with Section 1102.6(c) of the California Civil Code, it is the sole responsibility of the seller of any real property, or his or her agent, to deliver to the prospective purchaser a disclosure notice of the following:

California property tax law requires the Assessor to revalue real property at the time the ownership of the property changes. Because of this law, you may receive one or two supplemental tax bills, depending on when your loan closes.

The supplemental tax bills are not mailed to your lender. If you have arranged for your property tax payments to be paid through an impound account, the supplemental tax bills will not be paid by your lender. It is your responsibility to pay these supplemental bills directly to the Tax Collector.

If you have any question concerning this matter, please call your local Tax Collector's Office.

As stated above, California law requires that the Assessor re-appraise property upon a change of ownership or the completion of new construction. This re-appraisal results in a supplemental tax assessment which is based on the difference between the new value and the old value of the property, multiplied by the property's Ad Valorem tax rate. The resulting Supplemental Tax amount is then pro-rated, based upon the number of months remaining in the fiscal year in which the event occurred.

The number of tax bills which will be issued also depends on the date the event occurred. If the change of ownership or new construction is completed between January 1st and May 31st, the result will be two supplemental assessments levied on two supplemental tax bills. If the event occurs between June 1st and December 31st, then only one supplemental bill will be issued.

For a complete explanation and estimation of the supplemental tax bills affecting this parcel you can go to www.californiataxdata.com and order a complete Notice of Supplemental Tax Report.

DESCRIPTION OF 1915 BOND ACT ASSESSMENT DISTRICT(S)
Assessment District No. 1994-1
City of Oakland
$7,370,000.00

► Summary

Assessment District No. 1994-1 was authorized by qualified electors in 1994 along with the issuance of up to $7,370,000.00 in bonded indebtedness. The bonds were issued pursuant to the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 to pay for the acquisition and/or construction of certain public facilities benefiting the properties in the district. The assessment lien is collected in annual installments to pay the interest and principal on the bonds and administrative expenses.

► What facilities does it pay for?

Proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be used to finance the costs of acquisition and installation of underground electric, telephone and cable television, public utility lines, a street lighting system and related street improvements, and to pay the cost associated with issuing the bonds.

► How is the annual levy calculated?

The principal amount of the bonds is allocated to each parcel in the district in proportion to the benefit received from the public facilities. The annual assessment installments represent each parcel's share of the interest and principal on the bonds. Administrative expenses are allocated to each parcel.

► Can the annual levy increase?

To the extent that the annual interest and principal payments on the bonds are not perfectly level, the annual installment payment amount may increase. Installment payment amounts may also increase if additional bonds are authorized and issued.

► How long will it be on the tax bill?

The annual installments will be collected until the final payment on the bonds is made in 2024.

► Foreclosure Proceedings

The Assessment District has the right (and if bonds are issued, the obligation) to foreclose on property when the special taxes are delinquent for more than 90 days. Additionally, any costs of collection and penalties must be paid by the delinquent property owner.

If you had more than one qualifying transaction, you may be entitled to multiple discounts. If your previous transaction involved property different from the property that is the subject of your current transaction, you must inform First American of the earlier transaction, provide the address of the property involved in the previous transaction, and the date or approximate date that the escrow closed to be eligible for the discount.
